Muhammad Ibn Sireen (RAA) & The Verses of Protection

It was reported that Abu Bakr Muhammad Ibn Sireen, may Allah (SWT) be pleased with him, once found himself stranded in a place so dangerous that if you weren't the one robbing and killing, then you should expect to be robbed and killed. So he feared for his life until he remembered something he heard from Abdullah Ibn 'Umar (RAA). And once he applied his knowledge to the situation, he made camp and slept.

At daybreak, Muhammad Ibn Sireen readied his mount and was about to leave when a man approached him very cautiously. When he came near as he dared he asked Muhammad "Are you a man or a Jinn?"

Muhammad was shocked. "What? I am a man of course. Why would you even think to as me that?"

Still wary, the man looked at Ibn Sireen and shook his head and said "No, you are a Jinn!"

"I assure you, I am Muhammad Ibn Sireen. I am not a Jinn. Why do you believe that I am not speaking the truth?"

The man became agitated and said "Look. Me and my troop saw you when you made camp. And we had decided to rob you and cut your throat. So we launched our attack. Again. And again. And again. Thirty times we tried to just come near you, and each time we tried we found a barrier of iron blocking our path. Finally my partners in crime gave up, convinced that you were some kind of powerful Jinn and they left. But I stayed behind to find out for myself in the light of day. So tell me, if you are a man – as you say – how did you protect yourself from us?"

"What you have seen is the truth of Prophet Muhammad (SAWS). As Abdullah Ibn 'Umar told me that "Prophet Muhammad (SAWS) said 'Whoever reads these verses of the Holy Qur'aan before he sleeps, it contains 33 Ayaat by which Almighty Allah (SWT) will send Angels to stand guard over him. Thus nothing will harm him until the morning.” And this is what blocked you. And should you read it upon a person who is sick, what ever ails them will be removed and he will be cured (unless his destiny has reached him).”

The Verses of Protection

The following thirty-seven verses should be recited in Arabic in the order given below. It is reported that it is not necessary to recite them from memory, but there is more reward for being able to do so.
